

So telemarketers think it's unfair to restrict making phone calls to people on the do not call list. I think it's unfair that the people on the do not call list, including myself, have our lives literally interrupted just because these so-called businesses want to make a buck. Please DO NOT OVERTURN THIS!